Dave Davis seeks election to school board

Mr. E. A. (Dave) Davis announced Monday that he will be a candidate for office on the St. Albert Protestant Separate School Board in next month's election.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis of 36 Gladstone Cres. have made their home in St. Albert for the past nine years. He is 45 years old.

Mr. Davis has previously thought about running for office on the school board and feels he now has the time to devote to this work if elected. He is employed in an administrative capacity with the income tax division of the department of national revenue in Edmonton.

While he has not had former experience on a school board, Mr. Davis served as president of the Parents Association for Exceptional Children in Red Deer. Later he was president of the Northern Alberta chapter of this association in Edmonton. The association works with schools for slow learning children and those with emotional problems.

"School taxes are taking a large share of the taxpayer's dollar," said Mr. Davis, "and I believe that my administrative and auditing experience will serve me in good stead as a school board member, should the voters see fit to elect me to office."

"I hear a lot of comment from people concerned with the high cost of education," he stated, "while at the same time parents are worried about the quality of education and the need to improve it."

"Since I share these concerns, I feel I should make an effort to do something about them, which is basically my reason for seeking the nomination," said Mr. Davis.

Norman Lynch seeks school board seat

Mr. Norman Lynch, 38, of St. Albert announced Tuesday that he will be a candidate for the position open on the St. Albert Public School Board.

"It has been in the back of my mind for some time that I would like to work in this area of public affairs," said Mr. Lynch, "and I feel this is an opportune time to get involved."

Mr. Lynch is director of purchasing for the Edmonton General Hospital and formerly spent 10 years with the RCAF in the purchasing trade. His career experience also includes accounting and manufacturing background.

"While I have no previous experience in school board work, I feel that my background equips me to be of service in the financial area of school board administration, which is of utmost importance at present," said Mr. Lynch. "This was the main reason I have decided to seek the nomination this week."

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch have two school-age children and have made their home at 51 Geneva Crescent for the past five years.

Survey confirms MD concern over tax proposals

Report on a sample assessment survey was studied by MD Sturgeon council at their meeting last week. Council had the survey done in an attempt to determine what effect the recommendations of the provincial government's special committee on assessment and taxation might have on MD financing. The report of government committee has proposed that all land and all buildings be assessed, with an allowance of $2,000 exemption on residences both farm and otherwise.

After review and discussion of the sample survey, council reached the conclusion that if all farm land and buildings were assessed, taxes paid by farmers would increase over 100 per cent. "This would be a death blow to agriculture," said Reeve Lawrence.

Wheatley will not contest election

After five years in office on St. Albert town council, lawyer Dick Wheatley has decided to take some time off.

"I will not seek re-election to council," said Mr. Wheatley, "but perhaps I will get involved in some form of civic affairs again in the future."

Mr. Wheatley first took office in July of 1965 and topped the polls when he ran for re-election in October of 1967.

"I have enjoyed the work on council," he said, "but I think it is good to have an injection of new blood into town affairs."

Mr. Wheatley feels that things have settled down well now in council, and that St. Albert has competent people in administration, including Secretary-Treasurer Dan

DICK WHEATLEY

O'Connell, whom he mentioned as doing a fine job.

Councillor Wheatley has been known for his thoroughness in assessing plans and problems connected with town development, and his careful scrutiny of financial matters.

What the MD favors is an assessment of either land, or farm buildings, whichever is the greater. They have a resolution to this effect presently before the Edmonton Union of Municipal districts and Counties.

The major concern of MD Sturgeon council in the matter is that certain types of farm operations are felt to be assessed in an unrealistic and unfair manner. They are large-scale operations conducted on a small parcel of land, and large residences on small acreages, buildings in both cases being tax exempt under present legislation. The problem is particularly common for those municipalities located near large urban centres.

Evidence of what is happening was clearly shown by the sample assessment survey done by council. For example, one of the five parcels surveyed was a commercial poultry operation being conducted on a 20-

Sylvia Walsh will run for Public Board

One of the candidates who will be seeking the single vacant seat on the St. Albert Public School Board #3 in the forthcoming civic election is Sylvia Walsh. The vacancy was created by the retirement of Mrs. Sarah Ross.

Mrs. Walsh is the wife of Sergeant E. M. Walsh. They reside at 30 Gresham Blvd. and have one son.

Mrs. Walsh has had long and continued interest in educational issues. Until last year she taught school and has recently assumed the role of mother and housewife.

She is an honors graduate of the University of Alberta where she also did her post-graduate work (masters level), including the supervision and evaluation of student teachers. She eventually plans to continue studies at the doctorate level and her field of specialization is elementary education.

While on campus Mrs. Walsh participated actively in student and professional organizations. More recently she has served on the executive of the Ladies auxiliary to the Edmonton Policemen's Association.

SYLVIA WALSH

An active hobby she has pursued through the years is that of a free-lance writer, particularly in the fields of natural science and early Canadian history.

She recently started work on another book which deals with the Western Canadian NWMP forts. She hopes to have this project completed by May of 1973 -- the 100th anniversary of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Mrs. Walsh is active in the cub movement in St. Albert and this year is assisting the First St. Albert Pack.

Her campaign platform will be outlined in detail at a later date. It deals primarily with the demands and challenges being made upon the educational system by a rapidly changing, increasingly specialized society. It stresses the need to bring community and school closer together.

Nominations Close

The following nominations were filed at town hall today.

COUNCIL: Tom White, Bob Hudson, Les Moorby
SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD: Bill Penrose, Dave Davis, Alex Sollanych PUBLIC SCHOOL BOARD: Norman Lynch, Sylvia Walsh.

An election will take place in each case.

ELAINE GRAVELLE

Elaine wins NAIT Freshette title

A former St. Albert high school student phoned her home on Friday night in a very excited frame of mind. For 18-year-old Elaine Gravelle, of Site 6, R.R. 8, Edmonton, had just been elected Miss Freshette 1970 for NAIT.

Elaine, who entered the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology this month to further her education as a medical typist, was sponsored by the social services department of NAIT to compete against the different technologies for her title. She was judged on her poise, personality and congeniality and on speeches she had to make, giving a resume of her life.

Her prizes were a watch, a bouquet of roses, a wardrobe from the Black Sheep Boutique and a certificate from NAIT.

Elaine, who is the third of five children of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gravelle, will represent NAIT in the Miss Edmonton Eskimo competition, starting on Sept. 21, the title to be administered at Oct. 2nd's Eskimo game in Edmonton.

A letter from Nairobi, Kenya, arrived in the Gazette mail on Monday morning from the Sammons family, who wish to thank all those who gave them such a big send-off when they left St. Albert.

It reads: Dear St. Albert Friends, Clare, Gail, Margo and Jody Sammons, previously of 3 Bishop Street, wish to take this way of saying hello to all of you. Many thanks, to all those who gave farewell parties, dinners, barbecues etc. in our honor. Also, many thanks to those who made our years in St. Albert such pleasant ones. We will try to keep in contact until we return from Africa to St. Albert sometime in the future."

We had a pleasant trip over here. We spent two days touring London and then arrived in Nairobi on Aug. 28. We were thrilled to see giraffe, zebra, and wandering through the fields close to Nairobi. On Sunday we saw a nest of ostrich eggs lying on the ground, and each egg would have made a breakfast for 10 or 12 people, I'm sure.

Nairobi is a beautiful city with many spectacular trees, shrubs and flowers. We have peach, lime and banana trees in our garden.

Clare is busy getting going in his new position of curriculum planning for technical vocational courses. Our girls and our dog are adapting well, and I am not teaching, but hope to at a later date.

We would love to hear from anyone who can spare the time and money for an airmail stamp.

The address to write to for anyone who wishes to reply is:

Box 30231, Kenya Institute of Education, Nairobi, Kenya East Africa.

Toastmistress Club meets

The first meeting of the fall term for the Sturgeon Toastmistress Club was held in the St. Albert library basement with 22 members and president Mrs. Florence Jordan chairing the meeting.

A special report was made of the receipt of the official charter: #1938 from International Toastmistress Club headquarters in Los Angeles.

The meeting reviewed progress made in the first term and several standing committees were voted in to continue the work so ably done by the charter executive.

The next meeting is scheduled for Sept. 23. This will be a visiting meeting to the Edmonton Toastmistress Club, and all members are requested that cars will be waiting at the St. Albert library area at 7 p.m.

For further information regarding memberships in the Sturgeon Toastmistress Club contact Mrs. Edean Kathol, membership chairman at 599-6097 or Mrs. Alice Herbert at 599-7823.

Around Town

Dick and Barbara Wheatley returned on Friday from a vacation arranged to give them the best of two worlds. They took their two lively little boys for the first part, followed by a more relaxing second half without the wee angels.

Dave and Marge Davis of Gladstone Crescent are enjoying a visit with Marge's twin sister and her husband, Muriel and Jim Wilson of Regina. The Wilsons will be in town until the weekend.

One of Grandin Park's older institutions (if that is the right word) gets into action again this week when the Gladstone Crescent Ladies bridge club begins Weekday night play for its eighth season. The pals got the club going shortly after enough of them moved in and have never missed a season since.

Judging by the number of enquiries received each week at the Gazette office, the town hall could use an attractive sign to direct newcomers and strangers to its doors. Or maybe two signs. One on Church Hill Ave. before the intersection with Grandin Road, and another at the turn-off for driving in.

SIGN in twice-robbd bank: The bank where the action is.

SIGN on the office door of a Cape Kennedy space executive: "Out to Launch."

ERNE JAMISON

Ernie Jamison will bid for nomination on P.C. ticket

As publisher of the Gazette since September of 1966, this is the first time I have had occasion to speak directly to the readers. I wish to tell you that I will seek the Conservative nomination in the next provincial election.

For many years I have been interested and active in politics - for the Liberal party. I have worked as campaign manager for candidates in both federal and provincial elections, and was a president of the Wetaskiwin Federal Liberal Association while publishing the Ponoka Herald.

During the course of 17 years as a weekly newspaper publisher in Alberta, I have frequently opposed Social Credit, finding myself often in disagreement with their policies.

At 46 years of age I don't feel I have time to wait beyond the next election to enter the political arena. In recent years I have been impressed with the policy stand adopted by the provincial conservative party under Peter Lougheed, and I would like to join them in their bid for what I feel will be the first alternative to Social Credit government in 35 years. In the year since I joined the party I have attended many of their meetings in various centres.

For the first time in my life I have the time and the resources to run for office in provincial government. It is something I have wanted to do for 20 years, and a career I believe I can be successful in.

I have been a close observer of provincial governments in action, mainly in Alberta, but also during three years in Eastern Canada. It is my opinion that old-fashioned commonsense is often lost track of, as politicians are influenced by squads of so-called experts, and perhaps intimidated into decisions that belie their own good thinking. The "experts" can make mistakes too, and no elected representative need take a back seat to advisors.

In the belief that I can exercise common sense, and utilize a background that makes me knowledgeable in political affairs, I have my decision to try for office.

I am grateful for the support of Bob Frather, who has offered to act as my campaign manager, and to others who have encouraged me to take this step. It perhaps goes without saying that I hope to find support among Gazette readers as well.

The fact that being a publisher of the area newspaper could give me an unfair advantage over opponents for the nomination is in my mind, as before, will be in yours. I feel my job should not prohibit me from making this bid for office, which is an ambition of long standing. So I can only assure you that all candidates will be given equal space and the fairest coverage I know how to give in the columns of the Gazette.

My wife Shirley, son Duff, 18, and daughters Mary, 16 and Sarah not yet two, live with me on Grosvenor Blvd. All but Sarah have assured me of their support in this venture.

Previously to getting involved with them I grew up in Edmonton with Irish parents as a middle member of a family of six. After Grade 12 I joined the RCAF, graduating as a pilot in 1944.

Following the war I worked for the Edmonton Bulletin and the Red Deer Advocate before moving to Toronto and later Montreal. In the east I spent three years in the magazine publishing field.

In 1953 I purchased the Ponoka Herald and published it for 12 years before moving to St. Albert. Other interests include the Chamber of Commerce and the Curling Club, and at present I am president of the Chamber and vice-president of the club.

Since brevity is the essence of good journalism, I have probably made my first political goof. Could I add "for further information call 599-7001"?

Sweetheart Store

The grand opening of Sweetheart Jewellery and Gift Shop on Oct. 15 will see the start of a new venture in St. Albert.

The store in Grandin Shoppers Park, formerly owned by Mr. R. Lefebvre, has been a feature of the park for some time, but its new owners have no previous experience in the jewellery business.

Partners in the business are father and son, Masters, Joe and Adam Hauptman. Mr. Adam Hauptman, at present assistant manager of St. Albert's Drive-In Theatre and the owner and driver of a school bus, will be assisted in the shop by his wife, Pat, who several months ago took a course in the cutting of precious gems. This will be a feature of the Sweetheart store, for today is Mrs.

Hauptman's last as a shop assistant in Tamblin drug store.

Residents of St. Albert for over 20 years, Mr. Joe Hauptman lives at 13 Madonna Drive and his son lives at 10 Grandview Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Hauptman have three boys, Robert, 7, Michael, 6, and Brian, 3.

Although the new owners will give greater emphasis to their gift selection, their accent, as before, will be on personal service and customer satisfaction. And to ensure the continuation of the old traditions, Mr. Lefebvre will remain with the firm, carrying out its repair work at home.

The shop will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday to Friday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday's.

Snowmobile noise concerns Council

A resolution requesting the restriction of noise from snow vehicles in urban areas between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. will be submitted to the annual convention of the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association in Calgary on Oct. 26 from the Town of St. Albert, council decided on Monday.

The original resolution called for the noise to be restricted at those times to within a distance of 150 feet from residences, but Mayor Ray Gibbon pointed out that 150 feet was not an adequate distance to ensure no noise reaching householders from these vehicles.

He said that a federal act controlling the building of snow vehicles to ensure that they are provided with adequate muffling devices would soon come into effect.

Auction Sale draws huge crowd to garage

Perron street indowntown St. Albert had one of its busiest days in recent times last Saturday when, long before 10 a.m. starting time, the crowd began to gather for the auction sale at St. Albert Garage.

People came from Red Deer, Vermillion and centres throughout north central Alberta and many of them stayed till seven in the evening.

Auctioneer Mike Lawrence in action Saturday at the St. Albert Garage sale which attracted large crowds and heavy traffic throughout the day on Perron Street.

"The men from Lawrence Auctions Ltd. did a great job" reports Al Gaulin, partner with his brother Lawrence in the garage. "Mike Lawrence, John Wigemyr and the other auctioneers and spotters worked a long hard day and we couldn't have been more pleased with the way they handled the sale. Assistants Elmer Fell and Bill Fraser worked with us for over a week ahead setting up the sale and were a tremendous help."

The Gaulin brothers are finished work at the garage which is being torn down to make way for anew building to house a professional clinic.

However there is a considerable amount of office work to be done, tidying up all the loose ends after 18 years in business. They hope to get a mobile office set up in the vicinity until this is finished up.

After that Lawrence plans to retire and Al will look for an opportunity for another business venture in the area. Al and Mrs. Gaulin are raising two children in St. Albert and plan to continue making their home here.

Both Lawrence and Al, while looking forward to a change from the many years of long hours and hard work at the garage, agreed that they have enjoyed being in business in St. Albert. In particular they mentioned the pleasant relationships built up with customers over the years, many of whom have become personal friends.

The Joseph Gaulin family first settled on a farm in the Vegreville area, later moving to Morinville where Mr. Gaulin went into the construction business. They raised a family of five boys, one girl and one adopted daughter and except for a three-year period in the United States have remained in the St. Albert district.

George Gaulin started in the garage business as a young boy working for Eugene Courmoyer in Morinville, and in 1928 it was Mr. Courmoyer who helped him establish the garage in St. Albert. His brothers, first Lawrence and later Al worked for him until his retirement in 1952. At that time Lawrence and Albought him out and have operated the business as a partnership ever since.

'Cold Duck'

What an absurd, ridiculous, inappropriate, dumb name for a great new sparkling wine.

Actually, there is a reason for it. The name Cold Duck is a literal translation of a German pun. At the end of a party, guests would mix left-over wines together . . . calling the results "Kalte Ende", or "cold ends". Then the last word "Ende" was jokingly changed to "Ente", meaning literally "duck".

But there's no joking about the taste of Andrés Cold Duck wine. It's a tingling, unstuffy blend of Champagne and fine sparkling Burgundy. It maketh merry. It's new from Andrés. You'll like it.

"Happy Deathday"

St. Albert United Church will be showing the movie technicolor film "Happy Deathday," in the church next Sunday morning, Sept. 20 at 10 a.m.

Sunday school for the junior and intermediate classes will not be held in the community hall for this Sunday only, so that they too may see this film.

"Happy Deathday," is the play Peter Howard was visiting at the time of his death in 1985. It was completed by his daughter Anne Gordon, and subsequently it ran for 112 performances at the Westminster Theatre, London, in 1987.

The play had such an impact upon many people who saw it, that a group raised $100,000 in order to make it a film production.

"Happy Deathday" is about a family, but in that context it deals with some of the most explosive issues of our day - the rift between generations, between races and between differing philosophies of life, faith versus atheism.

It also is a comment on the power of science to transform the world we live in, and yet its limitations in the realm of human values.

The student newspaper of the London School of Economics, "Beaver," reflecting the views of many students who saw the play during its London run wrote: "If you wonder how the human animal is going to survive the final third of the twentieth century, go to 'Happy Deathday' - the play tackles the question head-on - (it) is moving, humorous, thought-provoking and, at times, profoundly disturbing.

This is a film that the students of our high schools should see.

Mr. Musto, minister of St. Albert United Church hopes that many of the students will see it, and may wish to have it shown in the high school at some future date.

"Do you believe in church?" an interested relative asked Junior when he came to visit. "I guess I do," said Junior. "I heard a lady behind me say she never saw a child believe so."

Boydies, friend injured, in motorcycle crash

One St. Albert boy was killed and his pillion passenger seriously injured, when the motorcycle on which they were riding was involved in an accident with a gravel truck last Wednesday evening.

The accident occurred at 5:50 p.m. on Big Lake Road half a mile west of the town boundaries, when Wayne Neil Klein, 16, of 111 Gordon Crescent, was killed instantaneously and his passenger, 13-year-old Thomas Andrew Curry sustained a broken jaw, broken collar-bone, lacerations and had his teeth knocked out.

WAYNE KLEIN

The driver of the truck was Mr. Ross Cramp of 6203 - 122 Avenue, Edmonton.

Thomas, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Curry, of 1 Savoy Place, was taken to Sturgeon General Hospital, and later transferred to the Edmonton General Hospital, where his condition is described as satisfactory.

The funeral of Wayne Klein, eldest of four children of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Klein, took place at 10 a.m. on Saturday at St. Albert's Roman Catholic Church.

Both boys were pupils at St. Albert High School.

Audrey on Safari

AUDREY SHERBICK

Audrey Sherbick sits behind a desk full of papers in her office, and few would dream to look at St. Albert's mayor's secretary that only a few weeks ago she was in Africa, hunting big game.

Yet such is the case, and when the heads and skins of cape buffalo, lion, leopard, zebra, wildebeeste, water buck, impala, eland and wart hog return to Edmonton to grace the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherbick and their daughter, Audrey will be able to glance from time to time at the head of some great beast above the mantelpiece to assure herself that she really did hunt big game in Africa.

June 24 and arrived in Nairobi on June 26. Mrs. Sherbick stayed in Nairobi while Mr. Sherbick and Audrey continued to Tanzania to shoot. Mr. Sherbick with guns and Audrey with camera.

With the aid of a professional hunter, a girl cook and eight African bearers, Audrey and her father penetrated Selous Game Reserve, camping at night under canvas. "At camp in Siwandu there were hippos," said Audrey, "because it was right on the edge of a lake."

Other animals they saw on safari but did not bag, included baboons, elephants, giraffes, crocodiles, hyenas, bush-babies and vultures, or, as Audrey calls them "Africa's own clean-up squad."

Audrey described the thorough jungle method of refuse disposal after an animal has died or been killed. First the vultures swoop out of the sky, as if from nowhere and tear at the flesh. The hyenas, with their powerful jaws, dispense with the bones, and the ants take care of the animal's intestines. In a very short time nothing remains.

In Nairobi there is a graveyard for hunters, which, Audrey says "isn't exactly empty," and on safari it was brought home to her the very real dangers in hunting wild animals.

There was the time for instance, when the party was crossing a dry watershed. They were about to get out of the Land Rover to test the ground ahead when one of the bearers spotted a green mamba, a snake with a deadly bite. Mr. Sherbick aimed his rifle and shot it. When examined the snake was found to measure eight and a half feet without its head.

After 21 days' hunting, Mr. Sherbick and Audrey returned to Nairobi and the family then commenced another safari -- this time photographic -- to all parts of Tanzania and Kenya. In their eight-day tour one place of interest was Lake Manyara Park, where the lions sleep in trees.

Their two month holiday culminated in flying visits to Johannesburg, Victoria Falls, Rome, Nice, Marseilles, the French Riviera Paris, and London.

Lady Lions enjoy speaker

The talk by Evelyn Unger of the Evelyn Unger School for Language and Learning, was a highlight of the season's first meeting of St. Albert Lady Lions.

Twenty-three members were present, and following Mrs. Unger's address showed their interest with a wide variety of questions on the kinds of learning problems and methods of teaching used at the school.

The school specializes in teaching children who, though not mentally retarded, suffer from brain malfunction which handicaps the normal learning and language abilities. It was formerly the Edmonton Asphasic School and is now located at 9909 - 109 Street.

Executive of the Lady Lions will meet Sept. 21 at the home of Muriel Cote and the next regular meeting is at the Club Mocombo, Oct. 19.

New and prospective members are invited to attend and hallowe'en costumes will be the order of the evening.

Singers begin this week

St. Albert's community choir, the St. Albert Singers, will launch their new season this Thursday, Sept. 17 at 8:45 p.m. in the lower hall of the United Church.

The Singers were founded two years ago from a nucleus comprising the United Church choir, under the direction of Mrs. Lillian Upright, their purpose being to foster the singing and enjoyment of good choral music in the community at large.

Projects thus far have included the organization of a community card festival at Christmas, the visiting of various local churches and participation in their services, and the presentation of annual concerts. The repertoire is wide-ranging, from Bach, Beethoven and Brahms to Pachelbel and Peeters. One of this year's tentative projects is a performance during Holy Week of Part 11 of Handel's Messiah.

New voices will be most welcome as St. Albert Singers begin their new season this Thursday.

For further information, telephone Mrs. Upright at 599-6997.

EDMONTON EXHIBITION GROUNDS

Paul Kane students enjoy the shenanigans at annual Frosh day last week. At least the seniors enjoyed themselves. It's hard to say about the big class of grade tens. Bill Gowans, left, fittingly capped as judge of the Kangaroo court watches a penalty being handed out to Nell Kelly by Ross Wilson. Chris Brothen look's over Ross's shoulder while Bill Tolman also gets a laugh. Haggard-looking face in the back corner belongs to Jeff Armstrong, who teed up the Frosh program.

Ernie Jamison, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presents Arthur, Leona and Robert Marleneau with 26 gifts for Sturgeon Hospital's first baby. His comment on the precise sense of timing involved drew the laughs. Eighteen-day-old Robert ignores the proceedings in favor of a nap.

"That girl frankly admits she is looking for a husband."
 "So am I."
 "But I thought you had one."
 "I do, but I spend most of my time looking for him."

Pro: "You lift your elbow too much to play golf properly."
 Duffer: "I'll report you to the committee! I never drink."

M.L.A. adds voice to Colony protest

Following is a letter directed to the Communal Property Control Board by Mr. Keith Everitt, M.L.A. for this constituency.

Dear Sir: I am pleased to have the opportunity to make representation on behalf of the citizens of the Sturgeon Municipality #60 to the Communal Property Control Board concerning the application by the Hutterite Brethren to establish a colony in the Alcomdale-Mearns area of the MD. It is noteworthy that:

(1) The council of the MD of Sturgeon unanimously oppose the application for a colony and have presented a brief outlining the reasons for their opposition.

(2) The Sturgeon school board, in a brief to your board, noted the reduced revenues and the lowering of the quality educational services if the proposed colony was to become a reality. They outlined the specific difficulties inherent in operating a small school in the colony and the effect this would have on the attendance at the Camilla School.

(3) The citizens of Alcomdale-Mearns have voiced very strong opposition. The fear that their active community life would be threatened and that the businessmen endeavoring to provide the area with services, would be adversely affected, is of utmost importance to this particular area.

(4) Petitions bearing over 800 names from citizens of the MD of Sturgeon, Town of Morinville, Villages of Bon Accord, Gibbons and Legal have been forwarded to your board opposing the establishment of a colony.

Perhaps it is somewhat unique for a M.L.A. to take an active part including the cir-ulation of petitions, to oppose an application. However, this action has been taken only after very careful consideration, and in keeping with the desires of the citizens of Mearns and Alcomdale.

Gentlemen: let's acquaint ourselves with the MD of Sturgeon. Its total acreage is 522,411 - the fifth smallest of the 19 municipal districts in the province. Out of 28 counties, there is only one that is smaller than the MD of Sturgeon. In this province, there are 53 improvement districts. Of these, only three are smaller than Sturgeon, while 50 are larger. It is interesting to note that I.D. #143 has a total of 14,799,780 acres without even one colony. Other interesting features of Sturgeon MD are as follows:

(1) The area of Bushy was transferred to the MD of Westlock a number of years ago.

(2) The north-east portion was transferred to Thorhild County about 10 years ago because of school problems that could have been easily settled. Today, there is a fertilizer plant established on this property with an assessment of approximately 8,000,000 dollars.

(3) What about the Hansen Report? Is our big neighbor to the south going to invade and swallow up a large section of the MD?

(4) The expansion of other towns and villages within the MD is bound to have an effect.

(5) The MD of Sturgeon is already blessed with two military establishments and an Indian Reserve.

The big question is "What do we have left?"

Gentlemen I submit there is no room in Sturgeon for a Hutterite Colony.

Keith Everitt
M.L.A. - St. Albert.

Uncle officiates at wedding

St. Emile's Church in Legal was the setting for a lovely afternoon wedding when Carman Prefontaine was united in the sacrament of Holy Matrimony to Robert Blisson from Edmonton.

Carman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philippe Prefontaine from Legal while Robert is the son of the late Mr. Claude Blisson from Bonnyville and Mrs. Lucien Tremblay from Beaumont.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by Father Claude Prefontaine (uncle of the bride) from Fort Saskatchewan before an altar banked with baskets of multicolored gladiolus.

The wedding music was played by Sister Corriveau and Rachel St. Martin, soloists were Mrs. Laurette Kleser and Mrs. Monique Steffes, aunts of the bride and Les Marines.

Given away in marriage by her father the radiant bride chose a legarda crepe gown with empire waistline, high neckline, short cuffed sleeves trimmed with a border of yellow centred daisies, her full length train had a border of daisies the same as on the gown.

Her bouffant veil was crowned with a cluster of flowers. She carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses with white ribbon streamers accented with baby roses.

Bridesmaids Lorraine Blisson and Lorraine Mercier wore identical mauve sleeveless floor length gowns of peau d'elegance

Oldtimers still the best

St. Albert Willowbrook Saints were represented by Chester Cunningham and Larry Mitchell in the first Oldtimers game of the Oilfield Baseball League last Sunday in Breton.

The Calmar Angels, coached by Dave Buchak, were reinforced with players from the Breton Eagles and came up with a last inning come-back to score an 11-9 win in the first game.

The Oldtimers went into the last inning with a 9-5 lead but could not hold the Angels as they came up with six big runs for the victory. Newell Pickeral took the loss.

Cunningham was the leading batter for the Oldtimers with three singles and Mitchell had a triple. The second game was cut to seven innings due to the weather and the Angels scored four runs in the second inning on a triple by Don Chimers with the bases loaded.

St. Albert's Larry Mitchell got on base with a sacrifice and promptly stole second. He scored on an error and the Oldtimers finally got on the scoreboard.

Entering the last inning the Oldtimers were behind 4-1 but loaded the bases on two walks and a single. Dave Robinson of Breton then stroked a triple to tie the score and came scampering home on a single by Leeson Ruff of Warburg with the winning run.

Larry Lafreniere was the winning pitcher.

All proceeds of the game went into an injury fund for the league.

At last fall's convention the AAMD passed a resolution on farm building taxation. When the government's special committee report came out in March, however, it appeared little attention had been paid to the resolution, so a similar one is being prepared for this year's convention, supported by MD Sturgeon among others.

Messrs. Norman Giffen and John Woodroffe of the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission attended the meeting last Thursday. They presented a progress report on the outline plan being prepared by the commission on an eight square mile area surrounding the new university site on land use. The plan is in the preliminary stages only and Sturgeon council will be meeting with the commission on a regular basis as the plan develops. The MD have engaged the services of Mr. Danny Makale and Associates to prepare a general plan of this

Junior Citizens Receive Awards

Winners of the 1970 Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year awards, from the Calgary Power Service area throughout Alberta, join Lieutenant-Governor J. W. Grant MacEwan at the annual convention of the Alberta Weekly Newspaper Association at the Palliser Hotel, Calgary.

They were, left to right: Arthur Ohno and Janet Duco, representing the biology class of Winston Churchill High School, in Lethbridge; Laura Vasser, of Hinton; Diane Greely, formerly of Sadgwick; Timmy Town, of Moon Lake; Vance Lickies, of Hays; Bruce Lede of New Norway and Tom Emelison, of Lomond.

The Junior Citizen program recognizes and encourages young Albertans who demonstrate courage, initiative and leadership. It is sponsored by the Alberta

Weekly Newspaper Association and the investor-owned electric utility companies in Alberta.

Each of the award winners received a certificate from the utility company serving their rural area, a citation signed by the Lieutenant-Governor and a Canada savings bond.

Among the acts which were recognized was one by 14 year-old Bruce Lede, who by prompt action saved the life of his cousin, Tim Ross. The two boys were snow-mobiling when Tim's scarf snagged in the starting mechanism, jerking his head down and choking him. Bruce freed his cousin and applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

Liquor sales on Polling Day

The bylaw, under the Municipal Election Act, was not in operation in the 1969 elections either.

Slice of life.

Bread is a basic staple in the good life Albertans lead. And living in a province that grows the world's best wheat, we tend to take it for granted. Of course, for the farmer it's a little more complicated. It means an investment in labor, machinery, good soil management. Then markets must be found, transportation undertaken... even before milling and baking play their part. All in all, a skilled and complex business — comparable in many ways to the supply and distribution of electric energy. Here too specialized skills and complex processes are required to ensure that all the electricity you want is ready for instant flick-of-the-switch availability. While the overall cost of living has increased dramatically the price of electricity is still one of today's best bargains. Did you realize that the power used on a farm is, on average, less than one per cent of the total operating costs? That's something to think about when you consider inflation — or watch the toast pop up!

As I See It

By Rose Martel

Why is it that man has to leave ugly scars wherever he passes?

Travelling through the countryside and towns too or for that matter everywhere, large patches of grey rye weeds spoil the natural beauty. These ugly weeds are not seen on virgin land only where man has cultivated and disturbed the natural growth or has taken what was useful to him, then abandoned the area to neglect.

What is nothing more desolate than an old gravel pit marring a bountiful field or meadow.

In the entire district, especially on road sides and near old buildings, thistles are to be seen in large patches.

I found hazelnut picking near the Sturgeon River banks in the east end of our MD recently, and was appalled to see what was once a beautiful area where wild berries and hazelnuts grew in abundance, now weed infested.

As I see it... the municipal administration has every right to be seriously concerned about the spread of thistle and other weeds. But if every farmer would make sure that his land borders were kept clean, and the road allowance too, then the problem would become a minor issue instead of the threat that it is today. And why can't these out weeds be burned on the spot instead of letting them spread to clean land by the wind?

The weed problem is not only a countryside problem. Everywhere in towns and hamlets the weed inspection is negligible or non-existent. Often the worst weed infested land in towns is town or school owned property or public areas. There are more weeds to be found in the back lanes of the business areas than in residential areas in most towns.

The harm has been done for this year, as weeds are now gone to seed. This seed will blow and infest more clean land and garden areas next year.

However... there is still plenty of time for every local council to inspect the weed infested areas, within their administrative boundaries and make sure that the situation is not repeated next year.

MORINVILLE: St. John the Baptist Roman Catholic church in Morinville was the scene of a pretty late summer afternoon wedding when Miss Sharon Behiels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Behiels of Morinville and Constable Douglas Brinson RCMP of Stony Plain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brinson were united in a double ring ceremony by Rev. Father Archie Mackenzie of Mayerthorpe.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was radiant in a white chiffon over tulle gown, lace-trimmed and featuring an empire waist, stand-up collar and long sleeves. A long lace edged train complemented her gown. Her bouffant shoulder length veil was held by a cluster of white flowers and she carried three orchids in a crescent of foliage.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Gwen Fokete of St. Albert; and three cousins, Miss Jacqueline Kremer and Miss Bernice Kremer of Edmonton were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of blue peau de soie, featuring a white lace panel stand-up collars and empire waist lines. Long white gloves and matching slippers completed their ensembles. Each carried clusters of shasta daisies and white carnations.

The flower girl, a miniature of the bride's attendants was petite Lynn Brinson sister of the groom, the ring bearer was Master Robert Behiels, brother of the bride.

The best man was Mr. Earl Dawson of Rossland, B.C., other groom attendants were Constable Dave Edwards, RCMP from Nanaimo, B.C., Mr. Don Brinson brother of the groom and Constable Earl Beach, RCMP of Edmonton.

Miss M. J. Pepin was organist and Mr. George Lavallee was soloist. An RCMP guard of honor escorted the bride and groom as they left the church.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Behiels chose a flamingo dress of English fortrel with black patent accessories. Mrs. Brinson wore a soft coral dress with white accessories. Both mothers had orchids in corsage.

Following the wedding a reception and wedding banquet were held for 150 guests. Constable Joe Behiels of the Edmonton Police Force, proposed the toast to the bride.

A wedding dance and social evening for some 500 guests concluded the evening.

For her honeymoon trip to the West Coast, the bride changed into a bone white knit dress with brown alligator accessories and a corset corsage.

Constable and Mrs. Douglas Brinson will make their home in Stony Plain.

Cardiff couple exchange vows

By Florence Vranas

Theresa White became the bride of Randy Calahoo on Sept. 4 at 4 p.m. in St. John Baptist Roman Catholic Church in Morinville. She is the youngest child of Roderick White and the late Louise Arcand of Cardiff.

A wedding supper for the immediate family was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Calahoo with the dance at the Alexander Community Hall.

The attendants were Sharon Robinson, friend of the bride, and Francis Arcand the bride's cousin.

The happy couple will reside in Cardiff at the home of the bride's father for the present.

The groom will commute to his work as a carpenter in Edmonton.

SIGN in optometrist's window: "Eyes examined while you wait."

Why Y-Neighbours?

Y-Neighbours is the name of a project in its third year of the community hall. Every Monday over 20 ladies meet at the hall for keep fit instruction, discussions and demonstrations, while their pre-school children are asked after downstairs by 20 ladies in nursery and kindergarten classes.

The club in St. Albert is one of eight operated by the YWCA in the Edmonton district, including Sherwood Park. Mrs. Faith Dann, a YW physical education instructor, who was taking Monday morning's class, said:

"I was of the opinion that most women joined these classes for physical education, in fact what most of them want is to get away from the house and meet other women. So as well as the instruction, we try to have a good time."

Last year the ladies heard a talk on family life education, they saw films and had a discussion on drug abuse, and saw a hair-styling demonstration.

This year they are hoping to hold similar functions, and one of the ladies, who is taking a course in home decoration, will demonstrate the making of Christmas decorations.

The regular keep-fit instructor is Mrs. Barbara Munro and Mrs. Joan Hogg is the co-ordinator. Any lady interested in joining the neighbors should contact Mrs. Hogg at 599-8267.

Submissions oppose colony

Representatives of MO Sturgeon, Sturgeon School Division, the people of Alcomdale-Maarns district and MLA Keith Everitt, met last week with the Communal Properties Board in Edmonton to present formal submissions opposing the establishment of a Hutterite colony in the Alcomdale area.

Reeve Lawrence Kluhe of the MD council, and Mr. John McDonald of the school division presented written submissions, and Mr. James Kule of Alcomdale presented a petition bearing 813 names on behalf of the people in the district. The petition represented an overwhelming majority of the residents of the north-east area of the municipality. Mr. Everitt attended as an interested party.

The municipality takes the position that such colonies should be established in areas where they would have less detrimental effect on neighboring communities. This could be accomplished by locating them in either more isolated areas, or closer to large urban centres where the hutterite people could be more easily absorbed.

The Sandhill Hutterian Brethren have options on about 3,000 acres in the municipality, which is less than half of the 6,400 acres maximum for a colony under the communal properties act. The application presently being considered for some 3,000 acres, is in effect part of a planning document which could eventually provide for the maximum-size colony.

September 14 was the final date for filing written evidence opposing or supporting the application with the communal properties board. The board will bring the application, together with such evidence, before the provincial cabinet for decision. It is expected this will take at least a month.

Fun with Ceramics

It's the time of year again when thoughts are turning to projects to fill the winter months and the St. Albert Arts and Crafts Guild is set to begin another session of interesting classes for children, teens and adults. Above, a guild instructor in ceramics shows it's really as simple as one, two, three, with a little know-how and practice, to make a beautiful clay pot. Right, a member of one of the children's classes is absorbed in making his own wonderful clay animals. Classes in ceramics and many other forms of arts and crafts will begin at various locations in St. Albert the week of Oct. 5. A list of various classes and registration forms will be distributed throughout St. Albert this week.

Open House

Final registrations for fall classes held by the Arts and Crafts Guild and the town recreation department will take place at an open house at the Arts Centre, Saturday, Sept. 26 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Pre-registration by mail for the various classes is preferred and registrations at the open house will be accepted only where vacancies in classes still exist.

Also featured at the open house will be displays and demonstrations of various arts and crafts and instructors will be on hand to provide information. Coffee will be served.

Mrs. Anne Elkins - dogs are her business

When Mrs. Annemarie Elkins first started her job at St. Albert's dog patrol officer, she was told that she would last six months, after which she would be run out of town. Now, two years and many dogs later, she is still quietly carrying out her doggy duties, and with surprisingly little opposition.

In her official capacity, Mrs. Elkins has the authority to impound any dog she finds loose on the streets and to find the owners and fine them $10. But Mrs. Elkins, of 31 Salisbury Drive, prefers to temper justice with mercy, and each incident of stray dogs is looked into by Mrs. Elkins to determine the cause and if the owner is really to blame. If he is he will receive a ticket, if not, perhaps a warning.

The real concern of Mrs. Elkins is to help dogs and their owners, and with this in mind she is thinking of holding regular meetings where dog-owners can congregate, discuss their problems and ask questions. She would also like to meet prospective dog-owners with a view to advising them on their choice of dog and the difficulties they may encounter as owners of a dog.

All dogs, Mrs. Elkins feels should carry identification - possibly written on the inside of their collars. In this way, if they become stray or are involved in an accident they can be quickly traced back to their owners.

A good illustration of the necessity for dogs to have with them means of identification occurred recently when Mrs. Elkins was called to deal with a poodle who had been involved in an accident. The dog, which was badly cut, had been taken out by its young owner, a five year old girl, when she was visiting friends. Unable to take the dog into the house, the little girl had tied its short leash to the bumper of a parked car. Before she reclaimed the dog, the owner of the car had got into it, without noticing the dog, and had driven away. He drove from Sturgeon Heights downtown to the Bank of Montreal with the poodle dragging behind him, and Mrs. Elkins says that but for his careful driving the animal's neck would have been broken.

The poodle, when Mrs. Elkins called, was wearing a tag with its licence number on it, and she was quickly able to return to dog to the owners so that they could take it to a veterinarian. Three weeks of hospital treatment followed for the dog, but, as is shown by its picture when it was entered in the recent Purebred and Mutt Show, it is now quite well again.

St. Albert will shortly have its own veterinarian, when Dr. Elizabeth Metz opens the St. Albert Animal Clinic on 24 St. Anne Street.

Many dog-owners feel that the laws governing the restriction of pets are unnecessary and cruel, particularly when it means that a dog cannot be let out for a run on its own. But Mrs. Elkins disagrees with this view. She said "If people think this then they do not understand the situation. Any animal that runs at large is in danger of being shot, poisoned or killed in a road accident." She is especially keen that people should observe the bylaw relating to bitches in heat.

She was instrumental in changing this law from its formerly more harsh form. Before the law stated that bitches in heat must be kept in the house, but now the law is that they must not be allowed outside the confines of a fully fenced yard. Mrs. Elkins would advise all owners of bitches to have their animals neutered while they are still young, unless they intend the dog for breeding purposes.

Before buying a puppy it is wise to ensure that the dog's injections against dis-

Calling all Curlers

September sees the start of the curling season, and new curlers and old are invited to a games night at the newly-renovated St. Albert Curling Club at 8 p.m., on Friday night to renew old acquaintances and meet new.

There will be a charge of $5 per couple, and refreshments will be provided.

This meeting is instead of the Welner Roast, published in last week's Gazette.

keep it free in a fully-fenced yard.

Mrs. Elkins, who emigrated from Germany to Canada in 1953, and has lived in St. Albert for the past nine years, is only too pleased to offer advice to dog-owners about their animals. Her telephone number is 599-6788.
